Footnotes to Jeanette and Herman Rothchild Family Tree

1. Jeannette came from Dimeroda, Germany which is near Kassell. Herman died at 39. Neither came to the U.S. Aunt Bert and her mother and sisters visited Dimeroda in 1926. [Aunt Bert, did your father go on visit too? Also, do you know the birth order of your mother's siblings?] no
2. Olga, Bert's mother, came alone to the U.S. to stay with her wealthy aunt, Ida Stein. (Ida had a stepson, Morton Stein, who was a prominent NYC attorney.) Olga was not happy living with Ida and was going to return to Dimeroda, but met Abraham, (Bert's father) and stayed to marry him.
3. Louis Meyer was a rabbi and school teacher. Paula and Louis escaped to Israel. When Paula died, Louis returned to Colon.
4. Elsa Meyer escaped to England. Elsa married a dentist _____ Woods, who she met in a clinic in England. He was not Jewish. Elsa changed her name to Elsie
5. Herman Meyer was brought to the U.S. by Bert's parents. He later went to Israel. Either Wilhelm or Ludwig went to Israel. The other brother, who was married, stayed in Germany and was killed by the Nazis.
6. Roselle and her husband and daughter, were all killed by the Nazis. [Aunt Bert – Is this right that Roselle and her husband and daughter were all killed by the Nazis? If not what happened to them?] (Yes)
7. Aunt Bert, were Julius and Johanna and their daughter killed by the Nazis? If not, what happened to them?
8. Johanna May was related to the Mays of May Department Stores. Her son, Herman Rothchild (known by Bert as "little Herman"), was brought to the U.S. as a child by American philanthropists and initially lived in a foster home near Atlantic City.
9. Richard was mentally retarded. Aunt Bert, was Richard Rothchild killed by the Nazis? If not, what happened to him?

Yes