Footnotes to Teresa and Isidore Hirtz Family Tree

3 brothers came & then brought the parents

1. Teresa and Isidore (Aunt Bert is not sure if his name was Isidore) came from Winsenheim, near Strasbourg. They and all of their children came to the U.S. in 19__. [Aunt Bert – when did they come and did they all come at the same time? Do you know the birth order of your father's siblings?] Both Teresa and Isidore had died by the time Bert's parents, Abraham and Olga, were married.
2. Albert Mies was an alcoholic. The family wanted Bessie to leave him but she did not leave him. Lucien died at 28 of cancer. Lester and his wife, Ray, were good friends of Bert and Syd.
3. Bert referred to Herman ~~Kahn~~ Meyer as "big Herman". ("Little Herman" was Herman Rothchild.)
4. Ike Hirtz lived on Gerard Avenue in the Bronx.
5. Sophie Straus was from Baltimore and was related to the Macy's Strauses, Isidor and Ida, who went down on the Titanic. Charles and Sophie lived on Park Avenue.
6. Carrie went to Hunter College. Martin married _____. Leslie married a woman from Maryland and Teresa (about one year younger than Aunt Bert) married a rabbi who taught at a college.
7. Abraham was briefly a butcher. After that he and his brothers, Sam and maybe Max were in the metal business together. Sam had gone to school to study about metal.
